Thanks! Please still cancel her and let us know end date, and let us know how she can delete her free agent profile altogether after the ad spend is done.

Thank you!

Here is the new update. I cant believe this guy can continue to harass her like this. It's really scary.

Hey Nicole!

He already found her again unfortunately by searching for her "dreams are realty" term she uses, knows the reviews were removed and is threatening from both fake lead accounts the same message. She has decided to just cancel and delete herself altogether from Zillow. An unfortunate end to this but completely understandable.

Please cancel her paid ad account, and let us know the end date.

We need to change her name entirely for the duration of her ads - any suggestions? She said you could do Melissa Smith or something like that, or does it need to be a team type name?

Then we need to deactivate Michelle altogether from a zillow profile so she doesn't even have the free agent profile - how would we go about doing that?

Thank you!
